Let Yellowstone SOLVE YOUR VACATION PROBLEM THIS SUMMER!

To visit Yellowstone National Park — “Nature’s Show of Shows” — is indeed a worthwhile vacation. But — to also see the other interesting and scenic attractions offered on any of the tours described in this folder will make your trip doubly worthwhile.

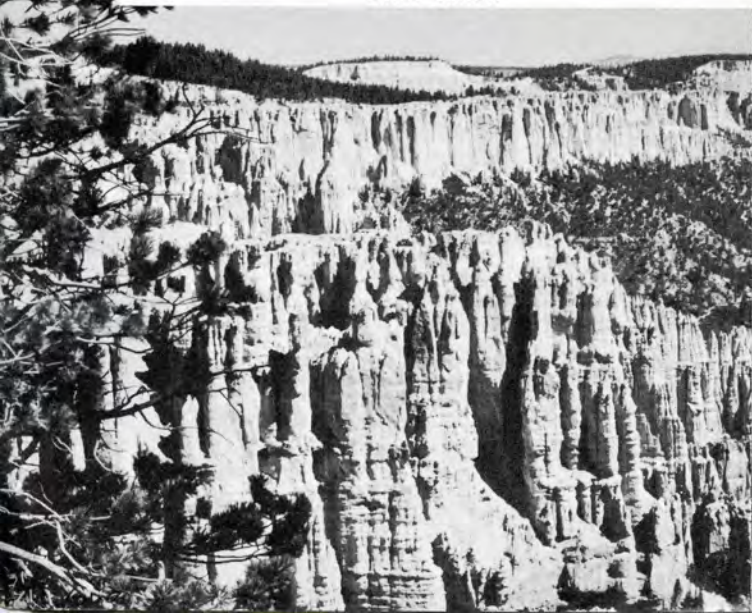

Here is a series of six tours, ranging from 8 to 13 days, each with Yellowstone as its first objective; each with different added features to give you a variety from which to choose. All are escorted all the way and are truly all expense. Your first and only cost includes rail fare; sightseeing in the parks and cities visited; all meals; all hotel and lodge accommodations. Only tips to waiters, Pullman porters and bus drivers have been omitted.

Several of the tours provide accommodations in comfortable reclining-seat coaches at lower cost for those who do not wish to use Pullman accommodations.

So come! See! Enjoy! Make Yellowstone your destination this summer!

YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK • SALT LAKE CITY • DENVER

ALL EXPENSE—8 DAYS • In Pullman Lov/ As $202.88 Plus $20.95 Tax • In Chair Car, On YD Tour $162.20 Plus $15.75

YD Tours leave Chicago Saturdays,
June 19 through August 28.

SYD Tours leave Chicago Sundays,
June 20 through August 29.

If you have only a week to spend away from home — here's the vacation for you! You'll see all of Yellowstone — with Salt Lake City, Denver and Central City included for good measure.

Our YD and SYD Tours are identical except that the YD Tours leaving Chicago on Saturdays provide both Pullman and Coach accommodations while the SYD Tours leave on Sundays and carry sleeping cars only.

1st DAY • You leave Chicago late in the afternoon — enjoy dinner in the dining car — and before morning will have crossed Illinois, Iowa and most of Nebraska. Every train convenience is yours including air-conditioned comfort.

2nd DAY • You will pass towns whose names bring memories of the "wild and woolly west" and of pioneer days. Cheyenne is reached in mid-morning. Then across Wyoming into Idaho. A day of pleasant travel.

3rd DAY • West Yellowstone in the morning — a hearty breakfast — and then you board motor coaches for the circle trip of Yellowstone National Park. Following the Madison and Firehole rivers, stops are made at Fountain Paint Pots, Great Fountain Geyser and Morning Glory Pool en route to our first destination — Old Faithful Inn. Luncheon, then a hiking tour of this famous geyser basin with a Park Ranger-Naturalist as your guide.

4th DAY • On to Grand Canyon with many thrilling sights en route — Yellowstone Lake, Fishing Cone, Thumb Paint Pots, Mud Geyser and Artist Point. Arrive at Grand Canyon Hotel in time for lunch. An afternoon of sightseeing thrills. An unforgettable experience is your first glimpse of the colorful canyon and thunderous Yellowstone Falls, higher than Niagara. After dinner, relax in the beautiful lounge — enjoy the music or dance.

5th DAY • Leave Canyon after breakfast, destination Mammoth Hot Springs. Your motor coach carries you over Dunraven Pass to Tower Falls with its numerous towers and pinnacles, and through forests of fir, balsam and spruce. Lunch at Mammoth Hot Springs, a visit to National Park Museum and a tour of the Terraces. Then on to dazzling Obsidian Cliff and Norris Geyser Basin. Late afternoon West Yellowstone. Dinner at Union Pacific Dining Lodge. You entrain here for overnight run to Salt Lake City.

6th DAY • You are in Utah's capital city — headquarters, Hotel Utah. Motor trip to popular Saltair Beach, terminating at the Temple Grounds for noon recital in the Tabernacle and a conducted tour of the grounds. Lunch at the hotel, a motor tour of Salt Lake City, then to the station for a 5:30 PM departure.

7th DAY • Breakfast — then Denver, Colorado. Leave by motor coach for an exciting drive by way of Park of the Red Rocks and Denver's Mountain Parks to Central City, site of first gold discovery in this area. Luncheon at the Teller House. Return to Denver in time to board the Streamliner "City of Denver" — homeward bound.

8th DAY • Early morning finds you traveling through Iowa into Illinois. After a farewell breakfast in the dining car you arrive in Chicago, enriched by a thousand and one delightful memories.

YT Tours leave Chicago Saturdays, June 19 through August 28.

Pullman and Reclining Seat Chair Car Accommodations

Here's a Yellowstone tour with an exciting added attraction and it requires only 9 days. It not only takes in Yellowstone, but also the rugged Tetons and the picturesque Jackson Hole country, as well as Salt Lake City and Denver. It's so easy to include Grand Teton National Park and you will be glad you did. And the cost is so moderate, too.

1st DAY • During the afternoon your train leaves North Western Station, Chicago, and you settle down in air-conditioned comfort for an enjoyable ride across Illinois and Iowa.

2nd DAY • A day of leisurely sightseeing from your wide-angled train window — Julesburg, Colorado; Cheyenne and Laramie, Wyoming; Pocatello, Idaho. Hours of pleasant, restful travel, punctuated by delicious meals in the diner.

3rd DAY • Victor, Idaho. Breakfast at Timberline Cafe —then by motor coach for a scenically superb drive over Teton Pass into the valley known as Jackson Hole. A stop at typically western Jackson, crossroads of the early trappers and explorers, then on to Moran and Teton Lodge for luncheon. Beautiful views of the Teton Range from Jackson Lake. On again, into Yellowstone Park with scenic thrills galore. You skirt Yellowstone Lake, with brief pauses at Thumb Paint Pots, Fishing Cone, Mud Geyser and Artist Point. Here you get a breath-taking view of Yellowstone Canyon and the great Lower Falls. Grand Canyon Hotel, late afternoon.

4th DAY • All morning at Canyon. And you are richly rewarded. The nature sculptured canyon walls are multi-colored; the waterfall of unbelievable height and symmetry. Mid-afternoon you leave Grand Canyon via Dunraven Pass and Tower Falls, arriving Mammoth Hotel in time for dinner.

5th DAY • You visit Mammoth's National Park Museum and enjoy a tour of the terraces. Away again, after lunch, this time to Old Faithful Inn, via Obsidian Cliff and Norris Geyser Basin. Dinner and lodging at the Inn.

6th DAY • The morning and most of the afternoon at Old Faithful. You see this famous geyser in action; hike over the geyser basin with a Park Ranger-Naturalist; absorb more of the lore of this fascinating region. Late afternoon on to West Yellowstone via Christmas Tree Park and the Madison River. Dinner in Union Pacific Dining Lodge, then board train for Salt Lake City.

7th DAY • A 7:00 AM arrival in Salt Lake City. Headquarters, Hotel Utah. A day of unforgettable sightseeing — Saltair Beach, the Temple Grounds, noon organ recital in the Tabernacle, a motor tour of this beautiful capital city. Entrain late afternoon, destination Colorado's capital city.

8th DAY • Denver, Colorado. By motor to Blackhawk and Central City, early gold-mining towns, visiting Park of the Red Rocks and Denver's Mountain Parks enroute. A tour of the Opera House, then luncheon at the famous Teller House. A day of interesting sights and splendor. Leave Denver late afternoon on the Streamliner "City of Denver," passing through Colorado and Nebraska.

9th DAY • You leave Iowa early today and enter Illinois. After a last breakfast in the dining car, your vacation ends in Chicago.

YCS Tours leave Chicago Saturdays, June 19 through August 28.

Why not lift 10 days right out of this summer's calendar, setting them aside for a vacation that is really "super." This could only mean our YCS Tour. With Yellowstone as a highspot, it also gives you a generous slice of Colorado, specifically Colorado Springs, the Pikes Peak region and mile-high Denver. In addition you have a day of sightseeing in Salt Lake City.

1st DAY • This afternoon the "all aboard" is heard and your train, the San Francisco Overland, pulls away from Chicago. Before morning you will have traversed Illinois and Iowa on your westward jaunt.

2nd DAY • Breakfast in the dining car, followed by pleasant hours of sightseeing from your car window. You're in the West of romance and adventure, pass such historic places as Cheyenne and Laramie, Wyoming, and Pocatello, Idaho. Train attendants look after your wants — air-conditioning keeps you comfortable.

3rd DAY • Detrain at West Yellowstone and board motor coach for circle tour of this most popular of all national parks. Your first overnight is at Old Faithful Inn. Enroute you stop at Fountain Paint Pots and Great Fountain Geyser. Lunch at the Inn, then perhaps a tour of the geyser formations. You see Old Faithful in action!

4th DAY • Motor trip to Grand Canyon. You cross and re-cross the Continental Divide, stop at Thumb Paint Pots and Fishing Cone, follow the shores of Yellowstone Lake, inspect Mud Geyser. After lunch at Grand Canyon Hotel an afternoon for leisurely inspection of Yellowstone's colorful Grand Canyon and Great Falls. Unbelievably spectacular!

5th DAY • On to Mammoth Hot Springs, arriving in time for lunch. Then a chance to visit the National Park Museum and to explore the delicately tinted Terraces. Away again at 2:30 PM for the trip to West Yellowstone, through Golden Gate, past Obsidian

Cliff, stopping at Norris Geyser Basin and Gibbon Falls. After dinner depart for Salt Lake City.

6th DAY • You are in Utah's capital city. After breakfast at Hotel Utah you motor to Saltair Beach, then to the Temple Grounds for noon organ recital in the Tabernacle. Back to the hotel for lunch followed by sightseeing tour of the city. Late afternoon board train for Colorado.

7th DAY • Denver . . . Colorado Springs and the Antlers Hotel. Another glorious sightseeing tour — the residential districts, Garden of the Gods, Summit of Cheyenne Mountain, Will Rogers' Shrine, North Cheyenne Canyon, Bear Creek Canyon. A typically western chuck-wagon dinner, followed by entertainment under the stars, in the Garden of the Gods.

8th DAY • All meals at the Antlers. An afternoon motor trip to the summit of Pikes Peak for a top-o'-the-world view of this Mountain Kingdom. You pass through Manitou and historic Ute Pass.

9th DAY • Back to Denver for a sightseeing tour of this metropolis, visiting the residential and business sections, the Civic Center and making a stop at Mountain View Park. Return to the Cosmopolitan Hotel for luncheon. Off for home on the Streamliner "City of Denver" traveling through Colorado and Nebraska.

10th DAY • Eastward through Iowa and Illinois arriving in Chicago after breakfast — the end of a wonderful vacation.
