NATIONAL SAFETY COUNCIL SLOGANS

"The Safe Way is Railway."

"Breaking rules may cause broken bones."

"The man who rushes in headlong usually comes out feet first."

"Save a minute and lose your life. Lose a minute and save your life. Which?"

"No man is greater than his deeds, more generous than his gifts, or safer than his actions."

"Encourage children to play in safe places away from railroad tracks, cars, bridges, cranes and other railroad property."

"Keep sound wisdom and discretion — then shalt thou walk in thy way safely, and thy foot shall not stumble." Proverbs: 3:21-23.

"Do not crawl under crossing gates when they are down. Respect the warning signals of the crossing watchman and the flashing lights or wigwag signals."

NATIONAL SAFETY COUNCIL SLOGANS

"Whatever you do, be careful."

"Don't forget that Day Dreams can become Nightmares."

"Every day is Judgment Day. Use a lot of it to prevent accidents."

"Avoid taking short cuts across or along railroad tracks. Never crawl under or between cars."

"According to previous experience, 20,000 persons will be killed this year by falling. Will you be one of them?"

"You can be too thin; you can be too fat; you can be too rich; you can be too poor; But—you can't be too careful."

"Before crossing tracks at crossings LOOK and LISTEN. After train has passed make sure no other trains are approaching in either direction."

"No passengers were killed in collisions or deraillments of trains in the United States in 1935, but over 2,000 trespassers on railroad property lost their lives."
