FAMOUS FACES ON C&O / B&O TRAINS

Dorothy Lamour

star of stage, screen and TV (shown here in portrait in Baltimore Civic Center, where she is a member of the center's commission) is a real C&O/B&O fan—often rides our trains "on the road to Chicago," Washington and other cities from her home in Baltimore

Senator Jennings Randolph

of West Virginia, enjoys a steak dinner in a C&O/B&O diner—and is served by one of his constituents, Waiter William H. Ingram of Wheeling, W. Va.

WELCOME ABOARD!

We are honored by the appearance of a number of celebrities in this issue of C&O/B&O's passenger timetable: Dorothy Lamour, popular star of TV, stage and screen; Brooks Robinson, "Mr. Third Baseman" of the World Champion Baltimore Orioles, and United States Senator Jennings Randolph of West Virginia.

C&O/B&O continues its efforts to provide the type of service that will appeal to the traveling public.

Recently, we've added more of the popular new food bar coaches, offering eat-at-your-seat meals for less than a dollar. The public's enthusiastic response to this modern, low-cost food service, pioneered by C&O/B&O, indicates that it meets a long-felt need.

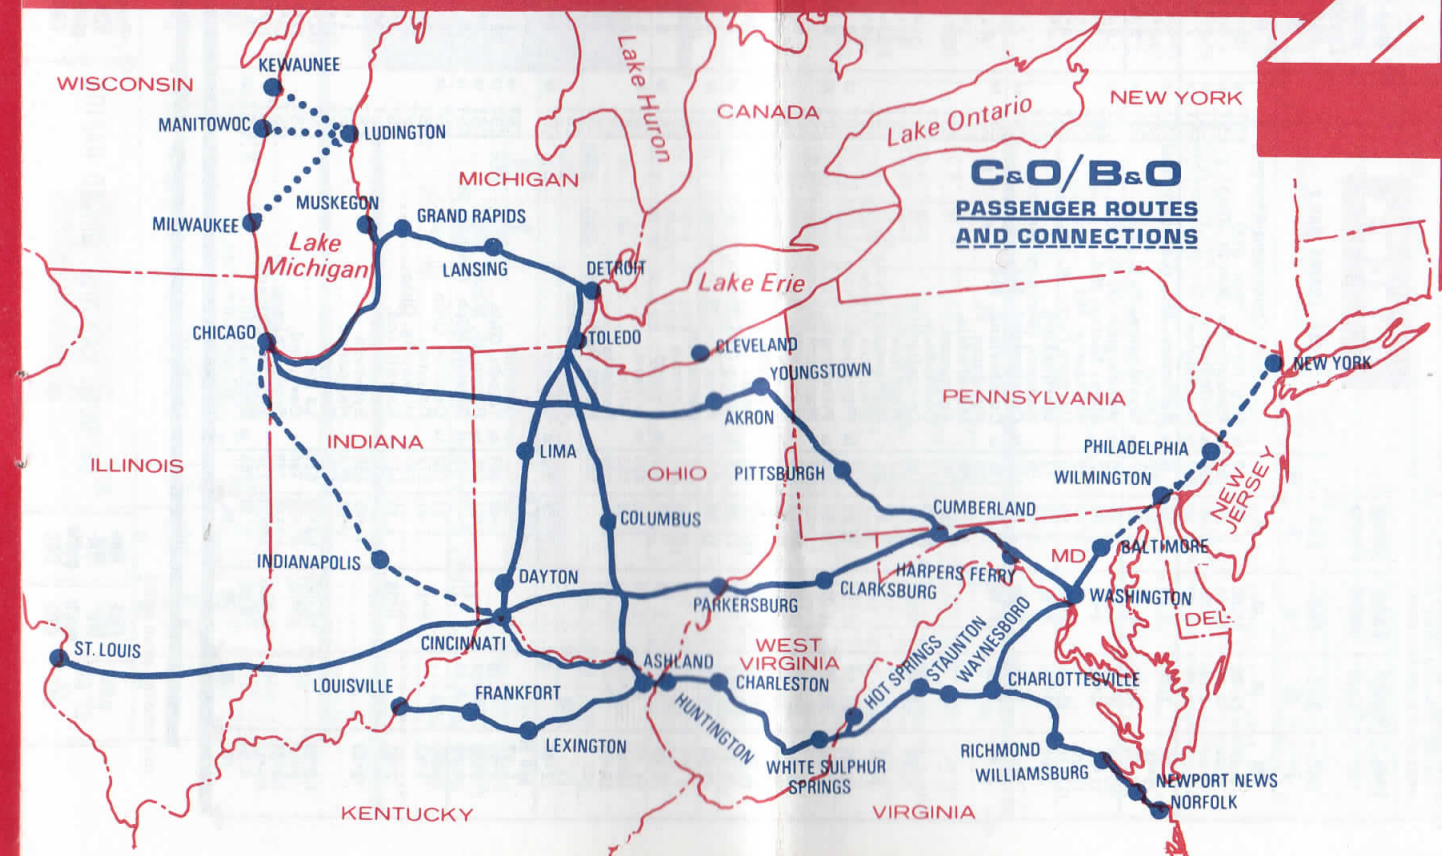

We offer current-release movies, free of charge, and popular Slumbercoach service on the "Capitol Limited" and "George Washington." Our Red Circle Day and 30-day round-trip coach fares are the lowest rail prices in the East. You may charge tickets and meals on American Express, Diners or Rail Travel credit cards.

C&O/B&O will continue to provide fine service on those trains for which there is public demand.
