INFORMATION

NOT RESPONSIBLE—This Company is not responsible for errors in time tables, inconvenience or damage resulting from delayed trains or failure to make connection; schedules herein are subject to change without notice.

PLEASE BUY TICKETS before boarding trains and avoid payment of extra charge.

CHILDREN under 5 years of age free, when accompanied by parent or guardian in coaches, also in sleeping or parlor cars when occupying same unit of space with parent or guardian; 5 years of age and under 12, one-half fare; 12 years of age or over, full fare.

ADJUSTMENT OF FARES—In case of misunderstanding with Conductors or Agents, please pay fare required, take receipt and communicate with H. G. Gillis, General Passenger Agent, 466 Lexington Ave., New York 17, N. Y. Tickets unused or partly used will be redeemed under tariff regulations at proper value.

BAGGAGE SERVICE—Baggage may be checked for transportation, subject to tariff regulations; 150 pounds will be transported on full fare tickets and 75 pounds on half fare tickets without charge, except a service charge of 25¢ will be assessed for each suitcase or other piece of hand baggage and 50¢ for each trunk at time of checking. No single piece of baggage exceeding 300 pounds in weight or 72 inches in greatest dimension, or single shipment exceeding $2500.00 in value will be checked. The above arrangements are subject to tariff stipulations as to contents, weight, value and size.

Money, jewelry, silverware, watches, negotiable papers and like valuables, liquids, fragile or perishable articles, radios or other household goods must not be enclosed in baggage to be checked.

This Railroad cannot guarantee to forward baggage on same train with passenger, and when necessary, baggage of passengers will be forwarded on other trains. To facilitate prompt receipt of their baggage at destination, passengers are advised to arrange for forwarding on a preceding train especially from stations that are closed during certain hours of the day, or closed on Saturdays, Sundays or Holidays.

LOST ARTICLES—When articles are lost on trains, or left in waiting rooms at stations, owners should apply at once to Agent at station where they leave the train.

CUSTOMS REGULATIONS—Residents of United States may take into Canada their wearing apparel and other personal effects and upon return to United States are entitled to have the same admitted free of duty. Residents of United States upon return must declare all articles acquired abroad, in their baggage or on their person, whether by purchase, by gift, or otherwise, and whether dutiable or free of duty. Exemption, however, provided purchases are made only once in a period of 30 days, and provided residents of United States have been in Canada over forty-eight hours, will be allowed by customs officers of articles aggregating not over $200.00 in value, if suitable for personal or household use or as souvenirs or curios, and whether intended for personal use of passenger or as gifts or presents to others, provided the articles are not bought on commission for another person nor intended for sale. To save yourself embarrassment, inquire about the regulations of U. S. Customs Inspector at port of entry before you leave the United States, or if you are a traveler from Canada, before you enter the United States.
