Lv. SAN FRANCISCO 10.40 A. M.
(Third and Townsend streets.)
Ar. PALO ALTO 11.59 A. M.

Take conveyance to Leland Stanford Jr. University. This great seat of learning is commanding a liberal share of the world's attention, and is a feature of extraordinary interest to all sight-seers in California. Returning, drive to Menlo Park.

Lv. MENLO PARK 3.29 P. M.
Ar. HOTEL DEL MONTE 6.21 P. M.

The attractions at Hotel del Monte, Monterey and Pacific Grove are not a definite or measurable quantity. A day in their midst affords meager satisfaction. Two days are better, and a week may be filled to overflowing with something new and fresh every hour.

The hotel and its superb surroundings never lose their charm. Monterey and Pacific Grove both have attractions far above the commonplace. The eighteen-mile drive takes from three to five hours to do comfortably, and is as essential a part of the Monterey tour as peering at the heavens through the great Lick telescope is of the Mount Hamilton trip.

Lv. DEL MONTE 6.51 A. M. 11.52 A. M.
Ar. SANTA CRUZ 8.50 A. M. 1.45 P. M.

Santa Cruz is an uncommonly pretty seaside city, and justly proud of its charms. For visitors its chief attraction is no doubt its beach, although its drives are entertaining and its social activities as a popular seaside retreat always interesting.

Ar. BIG TREES 7.21 A. M. 11.32 A. M.

Lv. BIG TREES 2.11 P. M.
Lv. FELTON 2.14 P. M.

A few hours of well directed trips on the garden city's remarkably complete electric car system will disclose to the visitor a city of fine proportions, splendid buildings, thoroughfares and parks, and all the evidences of enterprise and thrift. San Jose is strictly up to date.

If the Mount Hamilton trip is contemplated, arrange to leave from Hotel Vendome as follows:
