"The Peninsular Beach Route"

Reaches

Lakeside, Bay Point and Cedar Point, Located on the Shores of Lake Erie, Direct.

LAKESIDE

LAKESIDE is a beautiful, quiet, strictly modern summer resort of 800 cottages, hotels and auditoriums, beautifully located on the south shore of Lake Erie forty-five miles east of Toledo. It has the most widely known Chautauqua Assembly in the Middle West and appeals to discriminating people who desire to spend a day, a week, or the entire summer at a high class resort affording both intellectual and recreational advantages of all kinds. Convenient for their participation in the Camp Perry shoot.

CEDAR POINT

CEDAR POINT On Lake Erie, the Queen of American Watering Places is a beautiful wooded peninsula, seven miles in length, with the waters of Lake Erie on one side and Sandusky Bay on the other. The peninsula has been transformed into beautiful parks and groves. In this natural environment is established the most famous Summer Resorts of the Inland Seas. The location is unique, and with all the improvements and attractions which make up the world's famous watering places.

CEDAR POINT HAS—The finest bathing beach in the world. Every known inviting amusement. Largest summer hotels on the Great Lakes. Large convention auditoriums and assembly rooms. Delightfully cool and shady picnic groves. Three miles of romantic, picturesque lagoons. Famous board walk. The world's largest dance hall and music by superb orchestras.

BAY POINT

At BAY POINT, the Junction of the rail and ferry lines of The Ohio Public Service Co., may be found ideal camping sites, together with the best and safest bathing beaches on Lake Erie.

The beach extends around the Point so that bathers may select the warm, quiet waters of Sandusky Bay or the more rough and invigorating waters of Lake Erie.

The beach on the lake side of the point is very wide, the water extremely clear and within a few minutes walk from the bath houses.

Bathers wishing to get on and off cars at the lake beach may use Erie View Stop at the extreme north end of the lake beach.
