The following packages, marked and numbered at [description], to be transported by the Wabash Railroad Company, are in accordance with the rates and conditions set forth in the contract. The following copies of the rate is to be presented without alteration or omission.

The Wabash Railroad Company.

BILLOFLADING.

Original.

Jan 29, 1903.
The Wabash Railroad Company.

Office of General Agent Passenger Department.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 29th, 1901

Mr. C. H. Bluck,

Buffalo, N.Y.

Dear Sir:

I have your favor 28th. and contents noted. I regret you have had trouble with your ticket and I have today written Mr. R. F. Kelly, Genl. Agent, Wabash R.R., Buffalo, sending him your ticket and will try and have him arrange in some way, to see that you are carried through. Kindly call at his office showing him this letter.

yours truly,

Harry E. Moore